Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed towards a digital recording apparatus to which signals from a plurality of video cameras is inputted. Each independent claim identifies the distinct feature of "initial value setting means for setting the compression rate corresponding to the target amount of coding for the recording mode selected by the recording mode setting means, as an initial compression rate in each by-channel compression rate storage areas in the second storage means". The closest prior art, Kato (US6504850) discloses compression processing, but fails to anticipate the underlined limitation.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
